

Babymel
London

Welcome to Babymel!

Since 2006, Babymel has been designing changing bags for parents who are wanting something a little more modern than the traditional nappy bag. With innovative materials and useful details, Babymel is now the no.1 brand for parents looking for great value, unbeatable quality and stylish design.

Changing bags have never looked so great.

Love Your Planet

In 2019 Babymel launched their first eco collection. Made from recycled plastic bottles, these designs helped with nappy changes and helped the planet! These styles are now some of the bestsellers amongst the Babymel line up as they don't compromise style for sustainability.
